

Healthcare in America, 2016 and the Medicare for All Solution

Saturday, March 5, 2016, 9a-4p

AFSCME Council 36, 3rd Floor, 514 Shatto Place, Los Angeles, $25

This workshop will explore access to healthcare in the U.S. and the impact of the Affordable Care Act. We'll look at Medicare, MediCal, employer-sponsored healthcare coverage, those who are without coverage, and what is meant by universal healthcare or a single payer healthcare system.

Speakers Training for Universal Healthcare

Saturday, April 2, 2016, 8:45a-4:30p

AFSCME Council 36, 3rd Floor, 514 Shatto Place, Los Angeles, $25

This speakers training is for anyone who wants to advocate for single payer universal healthcare – whether you'll be speaking at union meetings, in small groups of friends or co-workers, or staffing a table. The training is for both new and experienced advocates and will help you update your knowledge and sharpen your skills.

The training will include:

- The facts about the Affordable Care Act and the "Medicare for All" Model
- Public speaking skills, including how to frame issues and stay on message
- The use of different techniques for talking to large and small groups
- How to respond to challenging questions
